6. BASIC PRINCIPLES

Koç University strongly believes in multi culturalism and diversity, hence welcomes applications from international students.

7. METHODS

7.1 The determination of allocations and tuition fees:

International student allocations and the tuition fees for these students shall be determined every year by the authorized boards of the University. The allocation proposal made by the University shall be communicated to YÖK in accordance with the deadlines determined by YÖK. Allocations shall not exceed 50% of the allocation for previous year's programs as they appear in ÖSYS Higher Education Programs and Quotas Guidebook. For programs that newly opened in the relevant year (i.e. for programs that admit students for the first time) along with ÖSYS (Student Selection and Placement Examination) allocations, the consideration of international student admission allocations could be suggested. Programs that admit students for the first time during ÖSYS Additional Placement procedures shall not feature.

International student allocations and tuition fees shall be announced on the Internet pages of the Registrar's and Student Affairs Directorate in the section dedicated to Candidate Students, under the heading "International Students."

7.2 Application requirements:

7.2.1 The candidates who meet the conditions listed below qualify for application:

7.2.1.1 Individuals who apply to programs for which international student allocation has been made

7.2.1.2 On condition that candidates are in their final year of high school or that they have graduated;

The applications of the individuals listed above shall be not accepted.

- 7.2.3 Incomplete applications will not be considered. It is the responsibility of the applicants to ensure that their application documents are complete and accurate. If it is determined that the required documents or statements for registration are false or fraudulent, the student's relationship with the University will be terminated, and their registration will be canceled. In such cases, the fees paid will not be refunded. The concerned students cannot request the continuation of their registration by providing new documents in place of false or fraudulent ones.
- 7.3 Information concerning valid diplomas, examinations and minimum examination scores required for application from abroad are available on the RO internet page <https://registrar.ku.edu.tr/wp-content/uploads/2023/03/Entry-Qualifications.pdf>. While the validity of secondary education exit examinations (Abitur, International Baccalaureate, GCE, Tawjihi, etc.) does not expire, the validity of university admission examinations (SAT, ACT, etc.) shall be limited to two years. To qualify for admission, the candidates must at a least satisfy the minimum requirements of one examination.
- 7.4 Submissions of necessary documents during the application process:
The candidate must submit or send to the Registrar's and Student Affairs Directorate the documents required for admission and all additional requested documents in a sealed envelope until the deadline announced by Registrar's and Student Affairs Directorate for the semester in question. Information concerning application deadlines, required documents, and Registrar's and Student Affairs Directorate address for submissions is available at <https://registrar.ku.edu.tr/en/international-students/>. Application deadlines shall be announced in the university academic calendar as well.
- 7.5 Evaluation of the admission:
The applications shall be evaluated by Transfer and International Student Committee and the offices of College Deans and the admission or rejection decision shall be made for the candidate. If necessary, the candidate shall be contacted via e-mail or telephone.
- 7.6 Documents required for registration:
Candidates who have earned the right to register to Koç University must submit to the Registrar's and Student Affairs Directorate within the deadlines announced in the academic calendar of the relevant year, the documents listed on the Registrar's and Student Affairs Directorate's internet page at <https://registrar.ku.edu.tr/en/international-students/>
- 7.7 Transfer of allocations:
If no applications are made for the programs that admit through international student allocation or if there are allocations are not filled, the allocation that remain unfilled or did not receive any applications can be transferred by decision of Koç University's relevant boards to programs other than Law and Medicine, on condition that the allocations do not exceed 50% of the allocation for previous year's programs as they appear in ÖSYS Higher Education Programs and Quotas Guidebook. As for Medicine or Law programs, transfers can be made through Higher Education Executive Board decision.
- 7.8 Procedures regarding candidates that are accepted

7.9 Candidates who apply during mid-academic year

Koç University, upon approval from relevant councils, may prepare a pre-acceptance or equivalent letter for students that apply during the mid-academic year, with the condition that the quota does not exceed 1/3 of the previous year's international student quota. Candidates that are accepted in this manner can begin their studies in the following Fall semester.

7.10. Academic scholarships for accepted candidates

7.10.1. Academic scholarships can be awarded to international students placed into an undergraduate program of the University. This scholarship covers the student's tuition only. In cases where the student transfers to another academic program within the University, their scholarships may be continued subject to evaluation.

7.10.2. Scholarships are provided for a maximum duration of eight semesters to students who begin their education from the first year of the university (12 semesters for Medicine students). The duration of the English Language Center preparation program is a maximum of four semesters. In case scholarship students registered in the Double Major Program do not complete their Major or Second Major programs within 8 semesters (12 semesters for Medicine), the duration of their scholarship shall be extended by a maximum of 2 semesters.

7.10.3. Academic Scholarship may be canceled by relevant Councils because of disciplinary reasons.

7.10.4. International students offered admission to an undergraduate program at Koç University and offered scholarships under bilateral agreements with external parties (government organizations, companies, foundations or others) shall be subject to the rules and regulations established in specific scholarship agreements.
